

Make Your Casino Night Fundraiser a Success!

It's Easier than You Think to Make Money with a Casino Night Fundraiser

Lucky Lady has been running successful Casino Night fundraisers in Washington for more than twenty years. We literally wrote the book on Casino Night fundraising. Our casino events have helped more than 200 non-profit organizations raise more than $5,000,000 since 1982.

Find out how easy it is to hold a Casino Night fundraiser for your non-profit organization.

Q: Who Can Hold A Casino Fundraiser?

A: Any 501 (c) 3 or 501 (c) 4 non-profit organization with a minimum one-year IRS 501(C) tax-exempt status and is registered with the Washington Secretary of State.

Q: Do We Need A License?

A: Yes. You are required to obtain a Limited FRE (Fund Raising Event) license, issued by the Washington State Gambling Commission (WSGC). All Limited FRE casino night fundraisers are required to rent gaming tables from a Licensed Distributor (that would be Lucky Lady!).

Q: Where Do We Get The License?

A: From the Washington State Gambling Commission.

- For gaming rules and information – www.wsgc.wa.gov
- For gaming application – www.wsgc.wa.gov/forms/apps/4-090-f.pdf

For more information about licensing, please call the Washington State Gambling Commission at 1-800-345-2529.

Q: What Does Lucky Lady Provide For A Casino Fundraiser?

A: Consultations with your organizing committee, our “How To” Casino Night Fundraising Manual, assistance obtaining your Limited FRE license, all professional gaming tables and supplies, casino delivery, setup and removal, friendly professional dealers, casino Fun Paks, signage and moral support. All you do is select a date, select a venue and invite your guests

Q: How Does Our Non-Profit Organization Make Money?

A: Your casino profits are made from three areas: ticket sales, table sponsors and Fun Pak sales. We show you how to maximize your profits in all these areas.

Q: Do The Guests Play For Real Money?

A: NO! Washington law does not allow real money games. Participants play with Lucky Lady Bucks for a chance to win merchandise prizes that your organization has collected or purchased (see or prize list for great ideas). Gift Cards may also be awarded as prizes.
